THE LAW OF FREEDOM

PART 6: KARMA, CHAOS AND THE BELIEF IN AUTHORITY

by Kris Nelson

EvolveConsciousness.org

Truth is Love. Love is Truth. Truth unites. Lies divide. Embrace Truth. Care for Truth.

AUTHORITY

The belief in authority (BiA) is accepting the claim of the legitimacy of some having the right to control others who don't initiate harm. If you don't obey "authorities", they will initiate harm (do violence) to you, or send someone to initiate harm onto you. It is the false belief that some have the "right" to issue commands to others who must obey. Essentially, some are masters and others are slaves. Authority is slavery.

In reality, there is no legitimacy to a claim of having the right to rule over another, to make your will supersede their will over what they may or may not rightfully do. Rights and what is right is based in objective truth, not subjective whims, wants, desires, preferences or beliefs.

Accepting the false claim of authority to control others is accepting slavery.
Wanting authority is wanting slavery.

AUTHORITY, COLLECTIVISM, CONFORMITY

Authority is about getting your will obeyed by others. Other wills align to your will, or else they will suffer punishment for failing to do so. Collectivism gets people to align to what the group agenda or ideology wants them to be. It involves groupthink, social inclusion, feelings of belonging, acceptance, being part of something bigger than yourself, and also ostracism, exclusion, rejection, isolation or violence if you don't conform to what others expect from you. The individual is expected to subsume their will and mind-space. The individual is expected to act according to the will of another or others. Collectives or groups often integrate authoritarianism as well, but regardless, there is a negative consequence for rejecting obedience to that external source that you are supposed to give in to.

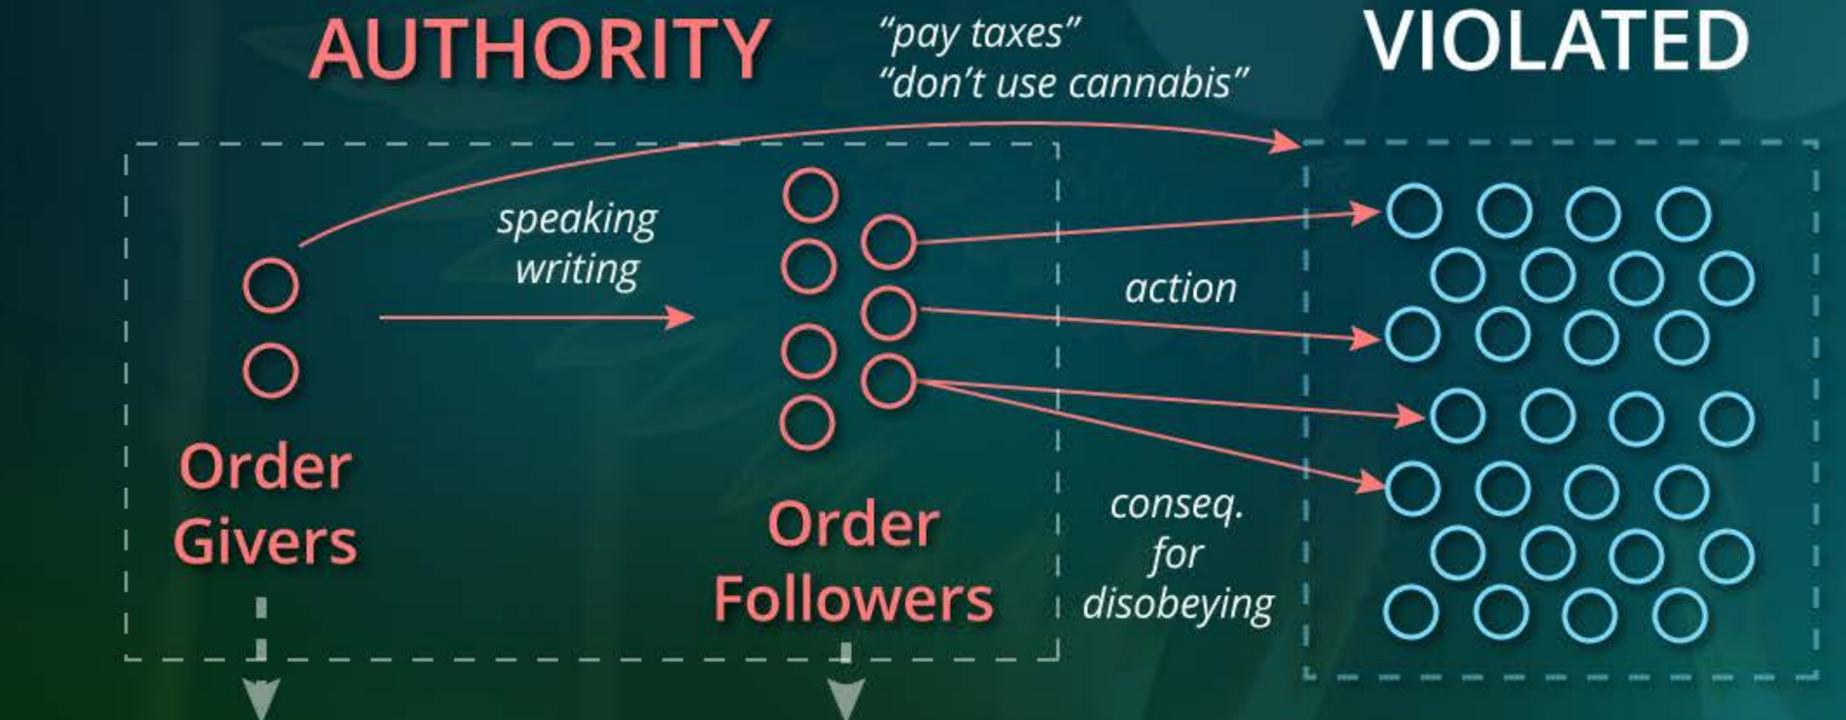

Modern authority via government, contrasted with monarchy, dictatorship, etc., is sold through collectivism fantasies like "we the people" having the power. Ignore the fact that it's only voting for various rulers to decide for things, and if we pay attention and don't like what they do we just vote someone else in the next round of elections every 4 years. In the meantime, obey your new master.

BYPASSING CONSEQUENCES

You can bypass the consequences of putting your hand in boiling water and being burned, by using a flame retardant gel or some other mechanism to bypass the normal effect of being burned. If you have a flying or gliding device, you can not fall off a cliff to your death.

You can also bypass the consequences to other actions. If you steal from another, you can do it covertly to not have you as the perpetrator known. You can also have a larger force on your side that defends what you did. Or you can have (belief) systems or institutions present that protect you from facing consequences by those who seek to have the injustice debt paid back. That's what the belief system of authority does, the system of control through the institution of government. Almost everyone believes authority is legitimate and supports their violence, so it continues.

KARMA AND THE BELIEF IN AUTHORITY (BiA)

"If they do [list1] or don't do [list2], fine them, assault them, or murder them for defending themselves. That's the 'law'. Do your job."

Doing the job of being immoral, violating: denying rights, stealing, assaulting, murdering.

Vote for authority to have power over everyone. No direct NKC to the violators. Everyone accepts the violations and takes on NKC via the action of inaction, freedom is degraded. Idiots.

The majority accept the BiA, either as legitimate or in fear, apathy, ignorance, cowardice and/or laziness of standing up to authorities in moral unison with others. Each person is alone against the many people operating as "authorities" (PoQ). Immorality of control/ enslavement is accepted by the majority (PoQ) and allowed to continue, thanks to the shield of the BiA and ignorance of moral truth. We collectively reap what we collectively sow by our inaction.

Direct karmic consequences, feedback, causality. People are the equalizers for violations of morality. The karmic repercussion the violators are to receive come or don't come from people taking action to set things right. This requires numbers to apply pressure to get them to stop. Moral education to all is required.

If people don't act, the violence is tolerated, accepted, normalized, justified, standardized. There is no direct karmic consequences to the violators: action takers or order givers. Instead of a causal feedback to set things right & reestablish order, chaos is the new normal, chaos is normalized, immorality stands. Freedom degrades. We get the collective karma of the aggregate supporting or condoning an immoral way of living. This creates a reality of enslavement, where claims of ownership upon others persist.

Scenario 1

Moral Violation,
Chaos, Injustice

Chaos condition (-) remains

Freedom Degraded; Chaos, Injustice as Reality

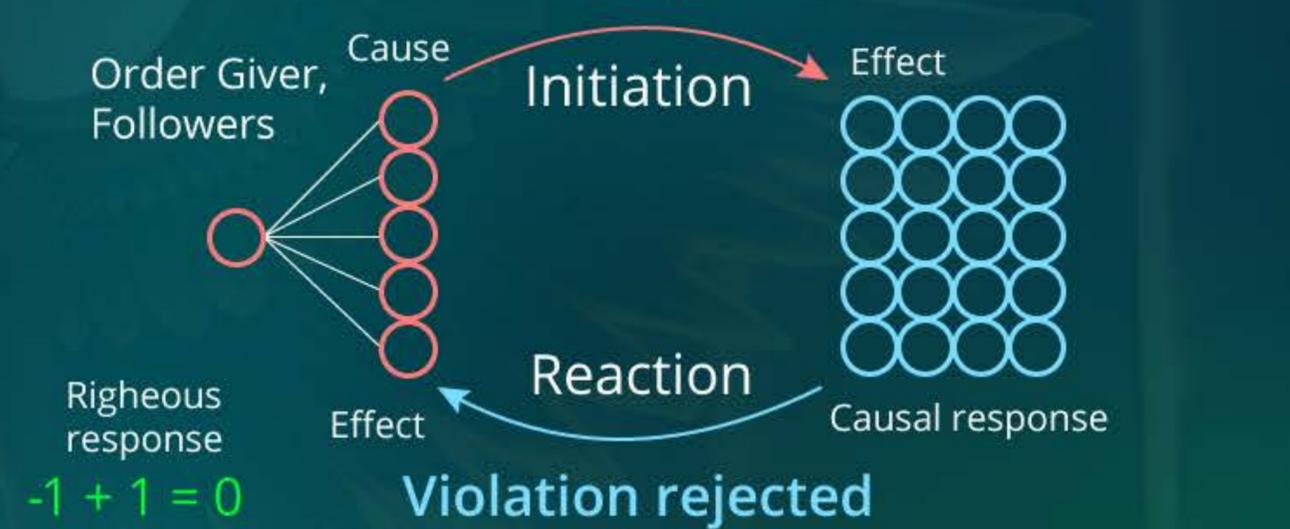

Collective karma, no direct NKC to individual(s) who created karmic debt

SDP not actualized, causal feedback inactive, chaos stays on aggregate/collective, everyone reaps results as a way of life. All of society partakes in the reaping of violence that was sowed. No direct payback, consequences or repercussions to violators by Natural Moral Law Free Will Causal Agent (NMLFWCA).

Scenario 2

Moral Violation,
Chaos, Injustice

Chaos condition (-) reversed by order action (+)

Freedom Restored; Order, Justice as Reality

Individual karma, NKC to actions, karmic debt repaid to violator(s)

SDP actualized, justice, causal feedback localized back to source cause, reap what they sowed; balance back the negative to the origin. Payback by Natural Moral Law Free Will Causal Agent (NMLFWCA).

Person1 violates Person2.
Immorality created/increased.
False claim of ownership (FCO).

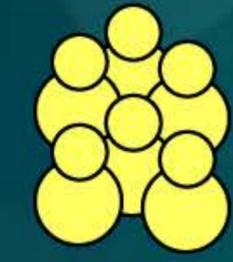

Restitution
Redress
Rectification

Others do care about morality/justice.
P2 has support for restitution.
P2 and others make P1 rectify their wrong.

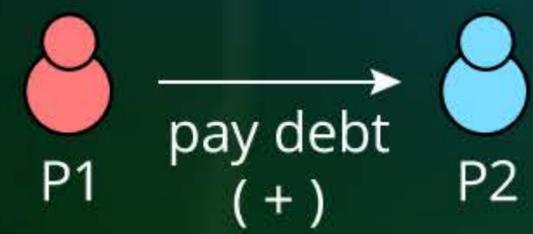

Others

or

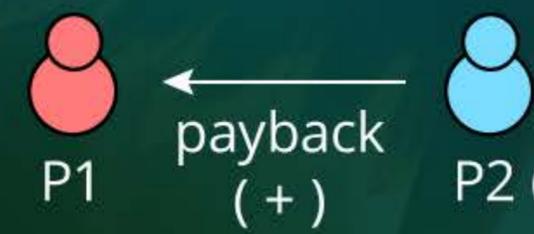

Others don't care, deny morality,
or are loyal to P1 instead of morality.
P2 has no support for restitution.
P2 can get justice themselves, or not.

Others

FCO revoked

or

FCO revoked

P2 (or others)

FCO stands

The person wronged ( - ) is made right by the wrongdoer ( + ). If P1 does not accept making things right, P2 or others can make things right by applying consequences to not tolerate the wrong/immorality and deny the FCO ( + ). Justice and balance is restored for the negative debt created. Immorality doesn't gain a foothold of legitimacy.

Doing nothing at all lets the wrong/immorality stand unchallenged and sends the message that violating others is ok, that you can make a FCO upon others and get away with it. This sets the precedent for what the society will tolerate, accept, normalize and standardize as the way of life. Immorality propagates and enslavement persists instead of being a temporary condition.

BELIEF IN AUTHORITY SHIELD

When the aggregate accepts, tolerates and supports the belief in authority (BiA) with authorities creating inherently unrightful behavior (violence), negative consequences are rarely returned to the violators (authorities).

Institutions of authority are protected from repercussions by having the support of the majority who believe in the legitimacy of authority. Creators of immoral behavior are shielded as no one applies consequences. This creates persistent, covert injustice/immorality/slavery.

DOES THE AGGREGATE ACCEPT THE BIA?

YES	NO
Fear, apathy, ignorance, cowardice, laziness = lack of moral unity	Love, Care, knowledge, courage, will = moral unity
Accept violence, not applying direct NKC; DO NOTHING	Reject violence, apply direct NKC; PAYBACK
Karma not returned; righteousness shirked by free will, Chaos/Isfet to everyone for failing to be righteous against wrong/evil	Karma returned, reciprocated, payback; righteousness taken up by free will, Chaos/Isfet to those truly deserving it; Order aggregate

LICENSE TO VIOLATE

What we don't stop from continuing will continue, like false claims of ownership (slavery): taxation, licensure, prohibition. Authority has a license to make false claims of ownership, backed by everyone who supports them. No consequences are applied by the aggregate, so they can continue to do them indefinitely.

Those who do the immoral behavior aren't getting individual repercussions. The negative karmic consequences are in the aggregate, manifested as the condition of persisted immorality/slavery that everyone lives within.

The order followers, like most of society, think good/order is being done, and they have the responsibility of enforcing those legal restrictions. They are believed to perform a necessary behavior that the majority desire. Most of everyone wants it to be this way (to have slavery).

TWO PATHS TO END EVIL/SLAVERY

BOTH REQUIRE NUMBERS TO WORK

PHYSICAL DEFENSE

(less optimal)

Morally justified physical force to end violence/slavery/evil.

Numbers of people band together to make the architects and enforcers of the control system stop. All are morally united to apply consequences.

To avoid until necessary.
Work to...

NON-PHYSICAL DEFENSE

(more optimal)

Non-physical confrontation of moral education to stop creating violence/slavery/evil.

Morally educate everyone to stop doing violence and not support the enslavement system as much as they can. To stand united, ready to apply defensive force.

- Either way it requires people to act
- No savior/force going to do it for us
- Will go on until we act to influence others to stop

A WORLD WITHOUT ORDER FOLLOWERS

End target for moral education & pressure to stop being immoral?

Order Followers

Enforce the violence & enslavement

Slave system wouldn't exist otherwise
- no one following orders to violate rights
- no one subsuming will to that of others

Order giver "authorities" inventing laws or giving orders, w/ no one obeying or enforcing

Can't convince others to give them power over their lives.
Word-spells of mind control have no effect.
- no protection for delusional immoral claims
- morally educated see them as mentally deranged tyrants
- are psychopaths, and dealt w/ via SDP

No more belief in right to rule, control, obedience
Enslavement con-game over

KARMIC DEBT

DO GOOD TO OTHERS (BENEFIT TO OTHERS): NO KARMIC DEBT CREATED

Reciprocity to benefit them in some way, to repay them for their good deed, is favored and optimal to keep this cycle going, but not required/necessary. A consequence can be the loss of future help or of the relationship.

DO EVIL TO OTHERS (DETRIMENT TO OTHERS): KARMIC DEBT CREATED

Property loss is incurred by others, a negative is created. Debt in money is a negative (an imbalance) that needs to be repaid. Balance is achieved when the debt is repaid. Not repaying a debt is breaking your word, and someone will be at a loss of their property not being repaid. Karmic debt is an injustice which creates an imbalance. Balance of justice is restored when rectification is made where the property loss is restored, usually with a penalty for having to put someone through the trauma/distress of violating their rights and as a disincentive to not repeat the wrong/evil. A 1st offense can make the penalty optional if the victim desires, as a less-negative learning opportunity.

KARMIC DEBT COLLECTION

	ENFORCEMENT	IMPEDIMENT
Physical superiority	You're stronger than them	They're stronger than you
Technological superiority	You have better/more weapons	They have better/more weapons
Quantitative superiority	You have numbers on your side via moral unity to make a violator pay back their debt	They act with numbers and you don't
Intellectual cunning	You outwit them (strategy, ideas) E.g. Plan a cunning way to deal with them or get lucky in outwitting a violator.	They outwit us (strategy, ideas) E.g. Convince the aggregate to accept false ideas like authority so we collectively accept their violence or dominance

KARMIC AFFECTION

The belief in authority (BiA) insulates the manipulators from receiving personal, direct, negative karmic consequences (NKC). The NKC are applied to everyone in the form of living in the persistence of violence (enslavement) that we tolerate. Only those with a correct perception of reality are aware of the truth, and can see the chaos/slavery. The rest want to see authority continue as a form of “order”. Only the seers can see the negative aggregate karma at work, which even the violators live in.

Many of the manipulators of the control system favor the negative condition because they benefit from it by exploiting others (banksters, politicians, “elite”). The main builders (police, military, government workers) usually have no additional consequences for continuing to implement the enslavement system. Some of the dominators (builders or manipulators) just enjoy the control they exert on others, as they want power over others. Some of the manipulators (dark occultists) might not be rich but enjoy influencing the visible powers (lower level manipulators, politicians, etc.) to implement their agendas/will.

WHEN IS AUTHORITY REAPING KARMA?

BEHAVIOR	WHO'S AFFECTED BY VIOLENCE	INDIVIDUAL KARMIC PAYBACK
Accepted immorality: taxation, licensure, prohibition	Aggregate	No
Abuse of authority's defined power (beating)	Individual	Maybe
Defense against authority's violence (SDP) (fight back beating)	Individual	Yes

TRUE FREEDOM REQUIRES MAINTENANCE

MAINTAIN THE INTEGRITY OF THE PURE STATE

One drop of red in the pure blue isn't noticeable. The red gets mixed in with the blue which isn't the original pure blue anymore. Persistent slavery can be created and mixed into the aggregate condition, taking away the state of True Freedom.

Repeated immoral behavior creating persistent slavery, still mostly freedom, but not True Freedom

Immoral behavior stopped, True Freedom restored

LoF: NOT ALL FREEDOM = NOT TRUE FREEDOM

BULLIES

AND THE NEED TO PUT THEM IN THEIR PLACE

Bullies either think they have the right to do what they want to others — like control their forms of property — or know they don't have the right but just want to do it. They keep bullying to get their way because they aren't challenged on their violence to have consequences applied. If they did, and got hurt, they would think again the next time their immoral desires arose to take what they want. A bully is a taker, a thief, who won't stop until they see the benefit: not being hurt. Otherwise, there is no downside, only the benefit of getting what they want. Bullies stop when they get taught there is a negative consequence that outweighs what they want to get (or are made unable to repeat their action).

The government is a big bully, a gang with numbers that defend each other, with weapons they deny others the right to have. They also have supporters that stand with them. To physically stand against the largess of this bully also requires a large quantity of people. Moral unity — to influence the bully to stop or outright physically put a stop to the bully — is required.

WHY ACCEPT THE BELIEF IN AUTHORITY?

Collectivism is clinging to group dynamics; wanting to be accepted by others and belong to something through a shared identification. A group or institution like government can provide advantages for survival, like being taken care of in some way. Motivation for survival in disregard for what is morally right is based in fear.

The reasons (causal factors) for the desire for the immoral control of authority (government) stems from ignorance, fear of owning personal responsibility, self-loathing (the lack of self-love and self-respect), and abandonment. This is a childlike mentality.

The failure to identify these causes, address them and heal them prevents people from growing into true adulthood. It keeps them hopelessly identified with the collectivist group dynamic and caught in the cycle of defending that which they identify with that keeps them as irresponsible children. It's also defending their enslavement and preventing us all from living and coexisting in peace and harmony.

WIN/LOSS RECEIVED FOR CREATING CHAOS

AMORAL CHAOS SELF-CREATED

Hand on fire

Get burned

Only you harm yourself with foolish behavior. Net loss.

IMMORAL CHAOS, INDIVIDUAL LOSS

Attack someone

Self-defense solo
Rectification
Payback

Unjust chaos created, just self-defense response. Violator should get more chaos. Net loss. Claim of ownership nullified. Freedom level maintained.

IMMORAL CHAOS, AGGREGATE WIN

Attack someone

Self-defense solo
Too many to win
Victim suffers most

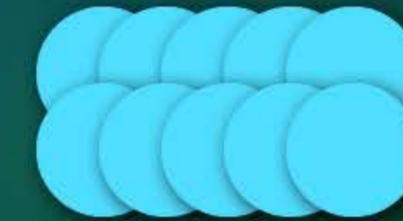

Unjust chaos created, violators get less chaos than given. Net win. Immorality wins, claims of ownership unrevoked. Freedom degraded.

IMMORAL CHAOS, AGGREGATE LOSS

Attack someone

Self-defense of many (quantity)

Unjust chaos created, violators get less chaos initially, but others care, don't tolerate, organize payback consequences. Freedom level maintained.

CREATING SUFFERING/CHAOS

AND HOW WE CREATE SELF-INFLICTED SUFFERING/CHAOS

UNRELATED TO IMMORALITY	RELATED TO IMMORALITY
SELF CREATED	OTHER CREATED	SELF + OTHER CREATED
Self-Inflicted action of self to self - burn hand	Other-Inflicted action of self to other - assault	Self-Inflicted inaction of self to suffer created by others - authority Aggregately deserved for aggregately rejecting moral unity

Self-inflicted suffering is chaos created by yourself, either directly by your own actions (burn hand), or indirectly by our collective inaction to stop immorality/evil (authority) from gaining a foothold and enslaving us.

WHERE DOES THE CHAOS END?

AGGREGATE COLLECTIVE SOCIETY	RETURNED TO THE INITIATOR(S) OF VIOLENCE
INITIATOR WINS	INITIATOR LOSES
created, unnatural condition SLAVERY INJUSTICE CHAOS	FREEDOM JUSTICE ORDER default, natural condition

NET GAIN FOR HIGHER CONTROLLERS

DARK ONES GET MORE ORDER THAN CHAOS VS. REST OF US

The controllers, manipulators or dark occultists don't have the real power of converting understanding into the wisdom of right-action. They can't ever create True Order, as it's not the wisdom of right-action that is being created. They are only creating chaos. They only care about gains or "order" for themselves, personally, where it's about getting more than others, usually by means of control and deception (monetary fraud, government coercion, mind-control, etc.).

A world in chaos with them ruling as Masters is fine for them, as long as they are the ones on the throne of trash where they are above others in some way. They have more "order" relative to others: they live in the chaos that they create, but as long as they put others into a more chaotic state than them (which is created in the aggregate by going against the positive aspect of the Law of Freedom), then they view that as a win. They don't have True Order, and no one else has True Order, but they have more "order" in their lives because they have less chaos in their lives relative to the greater chaos they impose upon others.
